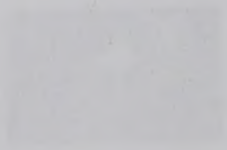
Migrations into Spartanburg Co.

By Frank Scott

In searching for the origins of your Spartanburg County ancestors, a general idea of the migration patterns into the county could give you the clue as to where to look. The very earliest of the settlers, of whom we know very little, came when the land was still controlled by the Cherokee Indians. Mostly they were either traders or roughed frontiersmen. It is doubtful that they stayed very long in anyone place given their own natures and their business. The second group to come to Spartanburg County came after the land was secured from the Indians between 1765 and 1770. A third group came after the American Revolution. There were others who came to the area either as individuals or in small groups in between these two major migrations or shortly afterwards. By 1810 the county was completely settled and the phrase "bordered by vacant land" is not found in the deeds.

The earliest groups of settlers in Spartanburg County were able-bodied pioneers who moved inland from Charleston. Indian traders, such as John Parris, followed the edge of the mountains from Virginia to Carolina. Of these earliest people there are few families that have survived in the county until the present. Mostly we are familiar with them since a number of streams and place names bear witness to their having lived here. Ferguson Creek, Lawson's Fork, Tyger River, Motlow, Ben's Creek (Paris Mountain in Greenville County) are among those streams and places that bear the names of the earliest settlers. Although the land in Spartanburg County was not settled by the Cherokee and used as a buffer between them and the Catawbas, it was still their land. There were times when they did not take kindly to the intrusions of the white settlers and retaliated. The Hammond, Hampton and, later, Bishop massacres acted to deter further encroachment.



After the French and Indian War, the Snow Campaign and a treaty that ceded the Cherokee's claim to Spartanburg County, the area was finally opened to permanent settlement. It was at this time between 1765 and 1770 that thousands of pioneers moved along the "Big Road" into the county. When you travel I -85 from Charlotte to Atlanta you are parallel to this ancient Indian trail. The trail ran from the coast of southern VA into what is now the Greensboro area, skirting that town much as the Interstate does today, and making a straight line to present day Charlotte. From there it cuts diagonally across the up-state crossing Cherokee County, the Pacolett River, Lawson's fork, Spartanburg Countyand on to Greenville and Atlanta. By the time the first white settlers came into Spartanburg County, SC, the road was wide enough for two wagons to pass.

With the opening of the Cherokee lands, the Rhodes, Bobos, and Woffords came down a trail that followed the same general route as US 20 through VA from Orange Co., VA to Orange Co., NC which was just north of present day Greensboro. It was from there that they took the "big road" on thier migration into Spartanburg County, South Carolana J.B.O. LANDRUM in his History of Spartanburg County stated that the first flood of migrants to the area were from Pennsylvania and Virginia, mostly from Virginia. Basically, the families from Pennsylvania that came were Presbyterians. They settled and built Shiloh Presbyterian Church near old Fort Prince on Fairforest Creek west of the present-day city of Spartanburg near the small town of Duncan. The Moores, Bomers, Andersons, Montgomeries, etc. were the families that settled in that area. Dr. George Howe in The Scotch Irish and their First Settlement on the Tyger River gives information on these Presbyterian settlers. Rev. J.D. Bailey in his History of Grindal Shoals gives information of those families that settled along the Pacolett River -- Clark, Fowler, Hampton, Henderson, Littlejohn, Kuckolls, Potter, Wood and others.

On the land grant maps prepared by the Union County Historical Society (A copy of these maps is in the Gaffney Library, Gaffney, SC) the size and dates of the grants that were given during this time can be found. These early grants were given by the British Colonial Governor and, usually, for service or supplies during the French and Indian War. Several of the families that come to Spartanburg Country during this time were "relatives, friends and neighbors" and had been for several generations. The Rhodes, Grizzel, Couch, Barbee and Nichols families started the journey from Middlesex Co., VA. They moved to Orange Co., VA, where the Bobo family, who had moved from Maryland to eastern Virginia, joined them and the Wofford family that had left Prince George's Co., MD. These families moved from there to Orange Co., NC, and in 1765 when Spartanburg County, SC, was opened for settlement they migrated to land granted to them on Two Mile Creek and the Enoree River. These families left people along the way. There are many marriages among these families and with other families from each of the areas where they settled. Some of them moved on from South Carolina into Georgia at this time and later. To illustrate how much these families intermarried; there is one child in Georgia who was named -- Wofford Bobo Rhodes. It would appear that in tracing other families who settled in this same area at this time, the most logical places to look would be along this same route.

In covering the origins of settlers in this lower part of Spartanburg County before the Revolution the following are known or suspected of being from Orange, Culpeper or neighboring counties in Virginia:

- Roebuck (Orange, Madison);
- Reynolds (Culpeper, Orange, Halifax, Co., NC)
- Casey (Randolph Casey was born in Virginia);
- McIhenney; (Orange);
- Salmon (Culpeper, Orange); and
- Willis (Orange, Madison).

Again in the mid-1700's, the Quakers in Pennsylvania had started to migrate into other areas of the country for reasons similar to their Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist neighbors. A major Quaker settlement was at New Garden, NC, in Guilford, County. This village still exists as part of Greensboro, NC, and is home of the Quaker's Guilford College. As mentioned the Indian trail led into South Carolina from this area. The largest community in upstate South Carolina was Bush River Meeting in Newberry Co., SC. Among these early settlers were those that formed the Tyger River Meeting in Spartanburg County and Padgette's Creek Meeting just over the county line in Union Co., SC. The Friends left by 1810 because of their disagreement with slavery in the South. Most of them moved to Miami of Ohio. Their records are listed in William Wade Henshaw's book, The Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, which gives information on these families. Another source of information that contains information from Henshaw was edited by Rev S. Emmett Lucas called Quakers in South Carolina. Some of the Quakers had changed their religion in order to fight against the King in the Revolution. Most of these patriots remained in South Carolina. These families along with their meeting houses were invariably taken over by the Baptist. Just as the Quakers had migrated to the area with other Friends, most of these families migrated to Spartanburg County with relatives, friends and neighbors. Among the families that are mentioned as being Quakers were the following: Addinton, Ballinger, Battin, Bridges, Brown, Brooks, Cammack, Chandler, Chapman, Cook, Coppock, Cooper, Cox, Duncan, Edmundson, Elleman, Elmore, Embree, Evans, Fincher, Floyd, Furnace, Gaunt, Gilbert, Haskins, Hawkins, Haworth, Henderson, Herbert, Hollinsworth, Hunt, Insom, Jay, Jenkins, Jones, Kelly, Lamb, McCool, Merrick, Miles, Milhouse, Minton, Moore, Neal, Nelson, Nilson, O'Neal, Parnel, Pearson, Pemberton, Pugh, Randel, Ruble, Russell, Spray, Smith, Stedman, Stiddon, Taylor, Thomas, Thompson, Thornton, Wilson and Wright.

Of the soldiers listed with Col. Roebuck in the Spartan Regiment that appear to have known Quaker names are the following: Brooks, Brown, Chandler, Duncan, Floyd, Fountain, Henderson, Jones, Isom, Miles, Pearson, Randel. Taylor, Thomas, and Thompson.

Among these families the given names tend to be Old Testament for the men, including Enoch, Jeremiah, Abraham, Isaac, etc., and for the women -- Elizabeth, Susan and Sarah. The following families in Spartanburg County were probably descended from the Quakers at either Tyger River or Padgette's Creek: Coppock, James Wofford married Kathy Coppock; Cox; Duncan; Embree; Fincher; Floyd is proven a Quaker family; Hunt; Kelly; Lamb; McCool; Miles, Pearson; and one set of Wrights.

There were a few families that came directly from Europe to Spartanburg Co. and settled in the Tyger River area. Francis and Edmond Ward, younger sons of Sir Francis Ward of Ireland, came directly to this area. Francis married Tame Doe who was the sister of Chief Oconostota. After he was banished from the Cherokee Nation, he married another Ward, assumedly the widow of his brother, Edmund. Nancy Ward, the daughter of Francis and Tame Doe married Lt. Bryant Ward, nephew of Francis Ward. Nancy and Francis both owned property along the Tyger River in Spartanburg County. Samuel Cathcart (var. Kithcart), Alexander and Annie McRoro Alexander, Isaac Crow were other Irish settlers on the Tyger River.

Another minor migration group of which there are a few families that settled along the Enoree River was of Huguenot descent. These families probably came from the Charleston or the Abbeville area and not directly from France. The Buice, Burdette, DeShield are families with Huguenot ancestry. The Ballew (var. Belue, Bellew, etc.) was another Huguenot family started by Rene Balleau who settled in what is present day Cherokee Co., SC.

After the American Revolution there was an even greater influx of families into Spartanburg County. The following families are listed in the Overwharton Parish records, which have been published by George King, these families migrated from Stafford Co., VA, to settle along the Pacolett River or in the vicinity of present-day Gaffney, Cherokee Co., South Carolina: Cannon, Cartee, McCarthy, Dunaway, Earle, Farrow, Gowing (var. Goin, Going) Hammett, Oliver, Shumate, and Suddeth. The Garretts in Laurens Co., SC, were also from Stafford Co.,VA. Other families in Stafford Co., that may have Spartanburg County relationships are: Abbott, Allen, Atchinson, Barbee, Berry, Bell, Bridwell, Cash, Cooper, Davis, Davidson, Edwards, Foster, Forrester, Latham, Lunsford, Mathney, Mays, Mountjoy, Murphey, Norman, Patten, Patterson, Phillips, Robinson, Smith, Tolson, Turner, Waters, Wells, Weathers and Withers. This does not mean that a family with one of these sir names in Spartanburg County, SC, necessarily came from Stafford Co., VA. It does mean that if one of these families originally lived along the Pacolett River in Spartanburg County and had one these sir names the most likely place to look for their Virginia origin would be in Stafford County.

The same holds true for the settlers at this time on the South Tyger River. Most of the settlers were from Culpeper County that lived in this area. A great number of them had been converted to the Baptist faith through the influence of Rev. William Mason who was born in Stafford Co., VA, but pastored Mt. Poney Baptist Church in Culpeper County. For the most part they came straight into Spartanburg County, unlike the others who had settled in North Carolina first and then migrated into the county. Two of these were Broderick Mason and Vincent Tapp who appear in the 1790 census. Also, listed in the 1790 census is John Mason. John Mason was the first cousin to Broderick's father and was from Stafford Co., VA. Later James Mason moves to the Tyger River area near his brother Broderick. Francis Mason who was also their brother settled on the Pacolett River with his grandmother and her relatives who were the Cannons and Hammetts from Stafford Co., VA. Sarah Hammett married Christopher Broderick who died within months of their marriage. Within months of his death she married John Cannon. The Cannons and Hammetts moved to the area with other relatives, friends and neighbors from Stafford County. Francis Mason married his cousin Eleanor Hammett and chose to settle with this group although his parents were from Culpeper County. Although Vincent Tapp left Spartanburg County and returned to Culpeper, his son, Moses, and his daughters and their husbands moved into the area. James Mason married Susannah Tapp. Young Scott married Sarah Tapp, and Elias Corder married Ann Tapp.

The 1790 census of Spartanburg County was done in sections. At the beginning of each of these sections, a census Captain is listed. If you can determine the area in which the census taker lived, you can usually conclude the section of the county where the person listed lived and generally who his neighbors, friends and relatives were. From the land records, you can usually determine approximate year of residence. Another consideration that has surfaced in this material is to which denomination and church the person was affiliated. People who settled in a certain area did tend to go to the same church. A large number of those people living in the Cross Anchor section of the county were Methodist and attended Trinity Methodist. The membership there was DeShields, Casey, Rhodes, Farrow, Poole, etc. Those settling around Old Bethel were Baptist and included Woodruff, Pilgrim, Drummond, Brewton, etc. many of whom came to Spartanburg County from central North Carolina.

Shiloh and Old Unity have already been mentioned. For information on Baptist records, those records are held at the Baptist Archives at Furman University at Greenville, SC. Methodist records are held at Wofford College at Spartanburg, SC, and the Presbyterian Records are at Presbyterian College at Clinton, SC. Just as many of the members of Old Unity were converts of Rev William Mason in Culpeper and came to South Carolina together with other relatives, friends and neighbors, the other denominations may have similar migrations.

The two major migrations into the county came down "the big road" from Virginia into North Carolina and then into South Carolina. This ancient Indian trail is on the earliest colonial maps as being well established in the 1600's. Those settlers from the western part of Virginia came down a trail that roughly follows US 20 through Charlottesville and then into North Carolina above the present town of Greensboro. Those migrants from Pennsylvania and Maryland and the eastern counties in Virginia followed a trail that ran through Henrico, Goochland, and Amelia into North Carolina east of Greensboro where they also took the "big road" into Spartanburg County. There were Huguenots that came from Charleston, as well as, immigrants from Ireland and England who landed there and moved inland. There were Quakers who came from Bucks and Westchester Cos., Pennsylvania who came to Guilford, NC and then into South Carolina. For the most part, as J.B.O. LANDRUM stated, most of these settlers came from Virginia.

Would like to contact anyone researching any of the Underwood's found in Wilkes Co.; part of which was later incorporated into Warren Co. Georgia abt 1795. Trying to determine the ancestors of Josiah Underwood born C1775 and found later in Warren and then Henry Co. GA. Several Underwood's are found in these counties prior to 1800.

Hi Miles. Thanks for your reply. Have you ever found a wife for John Nicholls? There are some reports that his name was John Henry Nicholls and that his wife was named Alice. I think that somehow two men have been made into one. There was a Henry Nicholls in Middlesex Co. with wife Alice and they had a son Henry, Jr. who married Alice Roberts, dau. of Griffin Roberts. I've checked this out pretty thoroughly in Middlesex Co. records and the death dates of both of these Henry Nicholls w/wives named Alice does not coincide with the death date for our John Nicholls. In addition, it was extremely rare for anyone to have a middle name in those days. I can provide further info. on this if you or anyone else is interested.
Sincerely,
Rhoda

Message: Sheri:

Please email me at rrhoads97401@yahoo.com. I descend from Epaphroditus and have a complete family tree of Hezekiah Rhodes (currently over 5500 names and growing. Complete might be too strong because I have 2 other Rhodes tree's that I found on the internet that I need to cross reference and enter new names.

Subject: Rhodes'

Message: Sherri,

Just for fun and giggles, I looked at your request and then compared your familiar names to those I'd looked up before. I keep scratchy notes in my own personal files about those I spend time on, and knew I had lots of Mary's and a Hezekiah.

Even to this moment I do not know if what I'm offering you is anything of interest, however, I've found more than one reference to any entry I keep.....

Hezekiah, b. 20Jan1740, s/o John Rhodes and Mary Davis, baptized at Christ Church where family were members.

Mary, b.5Jan1684, christened 15Feb1684 at Christ Church, d/o Ezechias and Eliza (Elizabeth) Rhodes, m. John Bradley 2Nov1711, d. 26Mar1744 in VA.

Mary, 27Aug1731-17Oct1731, member of Christ Church in VA, d/o Randolph and Sarah Rhodes.

Mary, b. 9Jan1708 VA, d/o Mary, gd/o Ezechias and Elizabeth, all members of Christ Church in VA.

The reason I gave you these is because they may get you back another generation or connect the family together if it's "usable" data for you. Hope you find this helpful.

The Will of Susannah Fullilove

WILL OF SUSANNAH FULLILOVE
Granville County, NC, Wills, Vol. 1, page 52, film # J. B. 938

This is an exact copy of the will as recorded with the errors left in, except that there was no punctuation in the entire document and I added comas and periods to help separate the various parts. This will remains the main evidence of the family of Susannah Tatum, her brothers and sisters and some of her other relatives. Relationship terminology had not been standardized at this time and some confusion remains as to the identity of some of the "cousins" listed. We know Henrietta Fullilove was actually a niece and the surnames of some of the others indicate that they, too, might be nieces. Those listed as son or daughter-in-laws were really stepchildren.

In the name of God Amen. I, Susannah Fullilove, of the County of Granville, being sick and weak of body but of sound and perfect mind and memory, do make and ordain this, my last will and Testament in manner and form as follows. That is to say, Imprismus, I give and bequeath to my Cousin Winny Frit Adams my Negro girl, Janney, on her husband's paying the sum of twenty five pounds Virginia money and he shall have four years to pay it in, and also I give her my bay mare and one large dinner dish, my Dutch oven Item. I give to my son-in-law, John Fullilove, my cupboard, one large iron pot, my billmettal skillet, and to his daughter, Susannah Fullilove, one half dozen hard mettal plates and half dozen spoons Item. I give unto my brother, Stephen Tatom, ten pounds item. I give unto my sister, Nanny Graves, my saddle and blew wooling gound, one pare of leather woden geald shoes and one pair of thred stockings Item. I give unto my daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Blackwell, one large trunk and four chares, one cross bard peticoat, one cap and handkerchief and apron Item. I give to my sister, Jemima Carrington, my black calico gound Item. I give to my cousin, Agnes Hicks, two cotton shifts, one pale blew woolen gound and stript woolen petticoat Item. I give to my cousin, Susannah Gravet, my white Holland gound, one large Holland apron, my gold ring, a purple floward ribbon and forty shillings Virginia money Item. I give to my sister, Sarah Chandler, forty shillings Virginia money Item. I give to my brother, Benjamin Tatom, five pounds Virginia money and if he has named eiry one of his daughters Susannah, I give her five pounds and if not, nothing Item. I leave between my cousins Hennerita Fullilove and Winneyfret Adams my two stript Hollen gounds and a stuffly gound, two black handkerchiefs, one pair of black gloves, one black gauze ribbon to be equally divided between them two, and two pair of thread stockings to Henneritta Fullilove and my black cap, to Keza Goodwin my black quilt to give to give to John Tatom's wife, likewise, one corse linnen shift and my linen handkerchief, and to Elizabeth Ann Tattom, I give money to buy her a shirt of what colour she chooseth, one pair of gloves and twenty shillings to buy her a ring, to Salley Fullilove and Nanney Fullilove give gound and thirty shillings cash to make each of them of them a ring, and to my brother, John Tatom, I give eight pounds, and to my sister, Nanney Graves and to her two sons, namely John Graves and Stephen Graves, I give twelve pounds to be delivered to her at twenty shillings per year, and to Jemima Carrington forty shillings, and what remains over I give to my son in law, John Fullilove, and to his two sons, Tho. Fullilove and Ludwell Fullilove, and lastly I do constitute and order and appoint my brother, John Tatom, executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills and bequesths by me heretufore made and declaring this to be my last will and testament in witness where of I have hereunto set my hand and seal this second day of May, one thousand seven hundred seventy four.

Sealed and delivered to be her last will and teststament in presence of (seal)
Barnet Tatom
Abel Tatom

X
Susannah Fullilove

Granville County August Court, 1774

This will was duly proved by the oath of Barnet Tatom and Abel Tatom subscribing witnesses hereunto and on motion was ordered to be recorded at the same time John Tatom come in and qualified as Executor to the said will.

WHO WAS THE FATHER OF THIS FAMILY?

Several researchers have attempted to answer this question. After years of frustrated labor, there is a temptation to 'latch on' to someone handy and accept them without sufficient corroborating documentation. Some of these errors have even been published in books. It is not known whether these authors independently came to the same false conclusion, or if one made the mistake and others merely accepted it without checking the information. The main test is whether the already identified children of the person selected agrees with the list in Susannah Fullilove's will. While we cannot yet say who the father of the family is, using Susannah's will, we can definitely say who the father is not! It is not John Tatum the son of Nathaniel of the Bermuda Tatums. His children are listed as being: John, Trimingham, Nathaniel, and Lovetum, not the seven listed in Susannah's will . Another possibility that has been raised is that the father of this clan was Chris Tatum, the husband of Bridgett Scott. His children were: Joshua, Bethia, John, Frances, and Chris; so he, too, is eliminated. There currently are only two suggested as possible antecedents of the family that have not been eliminated. One is John Tatum, the son of John Tatum, who was the son of Nathaniel Tatum known as the immigrant; but it can not be shown that this John Tatum ever resided in King William County. The second is John Tatum, the son of Abel Tatum (see below), or a currently unknown grandson of Abel. Since no birth dates are known for any of these, we cannot put them in their proper generation.

WHO WAS ABEL TATUM?

Records show that an Abel Tatum was in Virginia by 1667. He is listed as a witness in a law suit in York County, VA, in 1667. Rappahannock County (later Essex Co.) records have him purchasing 150 acres of land there, in 1683,where he is listed as being "Abell Tatom, planter, of New Kent County". He is ostensibly identified as being the Abel Tatum who was born in Leicestershire, England in 1642/43, though the connection is tenuous and no immigration record has been found for Abel Tatum. Abel had a son named John who inherited his land. County records (now Essex Co.) show John Tatom selling land that had belonged to "Able Tatom, father of John" in 1722. John also sold land in King William County that same year and the sale record indicates that he was a resident of King William County at that time. King William County was formed from land originally in New Kent County. Since he is the only person bearing the Tatum name recorded as living in this area, some have assumed that John (or his unknown son or nephew) is the father/ancestor of the family identified through the will of Susannah (Tatum) Fullilove. It is noted that several descendants of Susannah's brother John bore the name Abel. This name does not appear in the family line from the Bermuda Tatums. While providing strong circumstantial evidence of a family connection, it is not enough by itself to prove that Abel is the patriarch of this family, but it does place him as the leading candidate at this point in the research.

This letter is requesting assistance in the completion of the FULLILOVE family history.

Would you be able to assist in filling in the "initials" on the below names, please. Any information will be followed up on.

The State of Georgia and Autauga County, Alabama are mentioned in some family records, as sparse as they are. The Kentucky "groups" of the Fullilove family seem to have a lot of information to share, yet it's the Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana lines that are of interest to us.

The below information has been taken off headstones in Louisiana.

Surname: TATOM

The only Granville County Barnett TATOM I found was b. in 1793 and married Mary S. UNDERWOOD on 10 Jul 1820. Barnett's parents were Abner Tatom and Mary CURRIN. Abner was b. abt. 1751 in Norfolk Co., VA (d. 1819 in AL) and his parents were John Tatom (1720-1793) & Ann WRIGHT b. 1725. John's father was Nathaniel Tatom (1694-1739). This is not my line... I was just trying to help. Good luck!

Message: All I have in my records are the following:
TATUM, John - only data/date is 21MAR1793 as his death date. Place unknown. Place, date and names of his parents unknown. John Tatum married SARAH ANN WRIGHT I do not have any other information on Sarah Tatum.

Their children; known; were: HENRIETTA married to John FULLILOVE; ELIZABETH married to a MR. George HICKS; KIZIAH married to a GOODWIN; ABEL; ABNER JOHN; and WILLIAM.

I believe my GGG-Grandfather was also the child of John and Sarah Wright Tatum but I do not have written proof. My GGG-Grandparents were LUDWELL NATHANIEL SENIOR & ELIZABETH ANN "POPIE" POPE FULLILOVE. Ludwell was born @1780 as was Elizabeth. Their children were: WILLIAM WILDON, died in youth(?); MARY ELIZABETH; LUDWELL NATHANIEL JUNIOR b: 14SEP1814, m: ELSY RUSSA FREEMAN on 18JUN1835, d: 22SEP1885 in NEWNAN,COWETA COUNTY, GA; HENRY WORTHINGTON(?); MARTHA ANN died in infancy; BURWELL POPE; SEBORN JACKSON; WILLIS or WILLIAM FREEMAN; MARTHA; ORA EUGENIA b: 09SEP1820, m: ROBERT KADE.

I am descended from Ludwell Junior and Elsy Freeman Fullilove and have some information on their family. My data on the Tatum and have some information on their family. My data on the Tatum line is what I have above. The Fullilove book does not show any TATUM's but I will continue to look. The author's writing is crossed referanced from one end of the book, and back. It is somewhat confusing. More later.

Subject: Tatum Family

Posted by: Shelia Moss

Message:

Robert,
I don't have Alford Carroll Tatum in my family information, but there are a lot of branches that I don't have any information. I'm trying to fill in the blanks for those branches.
I can send you the information that I have.
The Tatum family migrated from Virginia to North Carolina to Georgia and then into Tenn.
I know of the family being in Hickman Co., Dickson Co. and Lewis Co., Tenn.
John & Mary (Wright) Tatum were married in Granville Co., N.C. Their son George W. Tatum was born in Georgia and died 1880 in Hickman Co., Tenn.
I'm not sure of the rest of John & Mary's children.
I have Lev Tatum who married abt. 1888 to Mary Eliz. Anderson but I haven't been able to find his parents.
My Tatum line has Murrell and Anderson families.
I have Lee F. Duncan married to Rebecca Adeline Satterfield. Their son John H. Duncan married Emma Jane Anderson 1900 Swan Creek, Tenn.
I don't have a Margaret Narcissus Duncan listed.
I will keep your information and let you know if I find anything.

I have an old family genealogy that says that Stephen and John Tatum were the sons of John Tatum Sr. and Ann Wright and that Stepohen was named for the father of Ann Wright Stephen Wright. I have no "proof" yet, but Ann and John Wright were in Norfolk Co. VA as well as the Baileys. Stephen Tatom named a daughter Sarah in his will in Orange Co. NC and John Bailey married a Sarah Tatum.
Maybe all is coincidence, but maybe "proof" will be found.

I am descended from Stephen and John's younger brother, Benjamin. I have come across five different purported genealogies for this family. I have disproven four of them and I have grave doubts about the fifth. There much speculation that their father was indeed named JOHN, but the big question is who was this John? As detailed in "Stephen Tatom and His Descendants" by W.J.Tatom & J.P. Green, Dallas, 1971, John and William were sons of Stephen and Mourning Tatom. The Wright sisters were their second wives. They lived in Orange (later Granville)Co. N.C. After their parents deaths, John moved to Lincoln Co., GA for a while then settled in Dickson Co., TN. In 1806, William moved to Dickson County, too. They lived beside Yellow Creek at a shallows still known as Tatoms Ford.

Stephen used the Tatom spelling though his siblings and many of his descendants used Tatum and even Tatam. The Tatom book doesn't mention Gabriel Overton or Culberth Hudson. Our line is Stephen-John-James-Epps-Eugene-J. Lytton-Mary Jane Tatom Wilson. What is your connection?

Absalom is a nephew of my oldest known ancestor, my ggggg grandfather, Benjamin Tatum(om). There were seven siblings and Absalom's father was one of them. His name was John Tatum. John was born in King William County, VA, before 1720 and later moved to Granville County, NC, where his children were born (most of them anyway). He later moved to GA and was living there when he died. By the way, Absalom's sister, Henerietta, married a FULLILOVE, not Tubbylove as most have interpreted the name in Absalom's will. I have much information on this family.

I am trying to find out more about Jemima Fullilove that was married to Benjamin P. Pulliam in Wilkes Co., Georgia. My ggg gradfather b. 1781 Elisha Pullen m. Anna Richardson in Wilkes Co., Ga. Anna Richardson was the dau. of Thomas Tatum Richardson. I have always thought there is a Tatum connection somewhere. I would appreciate any information anyone might have about this family and especially Benjamin P. Pulliam. Does anyone know where Benjamin Pulliam came from before Wilkes Co., Ga. And where the Fullilove Family lived before Wilkes Co.

Thank you for your time and help.

Does anyone have any information on Able TATOM b. about 1642, supposedly in Leicestershire, England? He is supposed to be the father of John TATOM, supposed father of Stephen TATOM b. 1721 in VA.
Is the Abel TATOM, mentioned in the will of Absalom TATOM (1742-1802) a descendant of the Able TATOM mentioned above?
I am a little confused and would like to hear from anyone that could clear this up.
Thank you,
Carolyn

This is what I have about Stephen Tatom, born 1721 in VA. I have that his father was Nathaniel Tatom, III (died 1739). His father was Nathaniel Tatom, II (died 1711). His father was Nathaniel Tatom, Sr. (born about 1619 & died about 1686 or 1687). His father was Samuel Tatom. I don't have any info on Samuel and haven't been able to go any further back.

The father of Stephen Tatom of Spottsylvania Co., VA could not have been Nathaniel Tatum III whose will speaks of "my four children" and gives their names as John, Nathaniel, Trimingham, and Love. Stephen Tatom (sic) is named in the will of his sister Susannah Fullilove along with her other siblings John Tatum (sic), Benjamin Tatum (sic), Nanny Graves, Jemima Carrington, Agnes Hicks, and Sarah Chandler. Except for "John", none of the names of Susannah's siblings appear in Nathaniel III's will, and none of the names of his children appear in Susannah's will.

It is worth noting that Stephen's descendants in Dickson Co., TN and their descendants in Oklahoma and New Mexico continued spelling the surname "Tatom" as his is spelled in Susannah's will while his descendants in Arkansas and Texas spell the surname "Tatum" as do the descendants of his brothers John and Benjamin.

A likely candidate for Stephen's father is mentioned in Spotsylvania Co., VA Land Patent Book `12, page 401, which records that on 6 June 1726, John Tatham (the old English spelling) patented "1000 acres in the fork of the Rappa[hannock] River. Begg[inning]by theriverside thence We by the muddy run side." That land was in the part of Spottsylvania Co. that was formerly King William County, VA. According to P.N. Clarke's "Old King William County Virginia Homes and Families", King William County Tatums were descended from Nathaniel Tatum who came to Virginia on the London Company's ship "George" in May 1619. That Nathaniel's family is fairly well documented in Virginia Colony records, except for those in Spottsylvania County where the records were destroyed by war.

David, you are exactly right in your logic concerning STEPHEN TATOM not being a descendant of Nathaniel Tatom III.

However, your statement concerning the spelling of the name of STEPNEN'S descendants in Arkansas is not correct. I am a descendant of STEPHEN via his son John and John's son RICHARD. All the descendants of STEPHEN in Arkanasas, that I am aware of spell the name TATOM. It is true that STEPHEN'S son John seems to have rebeled and spelled the name TATUM, but all of his children appear to have reverted back to the TATOM spelling.

Please let me know of any info you find on STEPHEN'S ancestors.

Regards,

Arvis Tatom

I have the following information about Stephen: He served as a juror in Dickson County, TN, in Sept. 1806 (County Court Minute Book, Vol. 1). On 8/23/1814, he executed an indenture to Lewis Evans describing a 40-acre tract on the waters of Garner's Creek, Dickson Co., TN. He signed his own name. Witnesses were: John A. Baker & George Evans (Deed Records, Dickson Co., TN, Vol B., p. 473). On the same day he executed a like instrument describing a 1-acre tract on Garner's Creek (Deed Records, Dickson Co., TN, Vol. B, p. 474). In August 1811 he executed an indenture to Robert Whitewall describing a 50-acre tract on both sides of Yellow Creek. The land had been inherited from William & Mary Rogers. (Deed Records, Dickson Co., TN, Vol. C, p. 240).

I have the following information about Stephen: He served as a juror in Dickson County, TN, in Sept. 1806 (County Court Minute Book, Vol. 1). On 8/23/1814, he executed an indenture to Lewis Evans describing a 40-acre tract on the waters of Garner's Creek, Dickson Co., TN. He signed his own name. Witnesses were: John A. Baker & George Evans (Deed Records, Dickson Co., TN, Vol B., p. 473). On the same day he executed a like instrument describing a 1-acre tract on Garner's Creek (Deed Records, Dickson Co., TN, Vol. B, p. 474). In August 1811 he executed an indenture to Robert Whitewall describing a 50-acre tract on both sides of Yellow Creek. The land had been inherited from William & Mary Rogers. (Deed Records, Dickson Co., TN, Vol. C, p. 240).

Absalom is a nephew of my oldest known ancestor, my ggggg grandfather, Benjamin Tatum(om). There were seven siblings and Absalom's father was one of them. His name was John Tatum. John was born in King William County, VA, before 1720 and later moved to Granville County, NC, where his children were born (most of them anyway). He later moved to GA and was living there when he died. By the way, Absalom's sister, Henerietta, married a FULLILOVE, not Tubbylove as most have interpreted the name in Absalom's will. I have much information on this family.

Sharon ... Absolem's brother, William, was born about 1759. There don't seem to be many records that document him, but it appears that he lived mainly in GA and may have died by 1804. I don't know if he ever married. Absolem's brother, John (1755-1830), married Martha Hicks and upon her passing married Rebecca Stovall. He seems to have lived in NC and GA. I'm not aware of any children. There were other William Tatoms born in this line, but I don't have any detail as to them. I'm not trying to be a "wet blanket". I'm just trying to help save you some time. I don't think these guys are the ones you want to concentrate on. Good luck!

Folks,

My wife is of the Kentucky Fullilove, but I have gathered a lot of information on the Georgia Fullilove. I once thought that the GA and KY Fullilove might be closely related, but no longer do. Below is everything that I have on the GA line. I hope someone finds this useful.

I am a member of the SAR and my book shows JOHN FULLILOVE, "Soldier" North Carolina. Another shows him as Patriot (meaning he could have held an office .eg. Constable, or donated to the cause in some way. ONe who went in the SAR on him has an E-mail address. I'll contact hm and see what he has. He lives in Georgia. My wife is a member of the DAR and when we can get to a library with DAR books, we can check it out that way and get a numbere and send for copies at Wash D.C. Thank you so much for the info re John Waldrop, son of Luke, who we know married Tabitha Parrish proved by his will dated 27 June 1794. Another genealogist furnished this info regarding John to me years ago. Because of failing eyesight, I am unable to read microfiche any more, thus am limited in the documents that I would like to research. This is the info I received "John received 400 acres Land Grant in Granville Co, NC 9 March 1761. John & wife Milicent sold 480 acres to Samuel Snead in Granville, NC on 15 Feb 1764. John & wife Tabitha deeded land to John Fullilove in Granville Co, NC on 7 Oct 1770. Another purpose of my inquiry was to find some answers which I have not been able to uncover. Do you have the wife's name for Luke and John, born 1782 in Newberry SC? My mother was Mary Ethel Chrisman, who died last Oct 30, 1997, age 86. Her grandmother was Melinda Cece Waldrop who was daughter of Claiborne P Waldrop; she died in 1905 with pneumonia; taught in a country school in Clark County, Ark. and married Titus Rogers. Their daughter Cece Caddo Rogers married Will Chrisman in Clark Co, Ark. If you have this family in your research, I can send you the sources I have for references. Thank you.

Wanda ... Bill Tatom's reply as to Henreitta Fullilove is correct. Additionally, the other sister named in the will is not MERIAH, but KEZIAH Goodwin. You should try to get a copy of "Southern Kith and Kin - Volumn 4" by Jewel Davis Scarborough. It is a well researched work that deals with this Tatom line (from about 1600 through the 1800's)and Stovall families with which the Tatom's associated and at times married. I'm a little confused about the daughter, Mary, who married Mr. Willett. Whose daughter? Absolem's? The Scarborough book states that he never married and therefore willed his estate to his brothers, sisters, nephews, neices, various kinsmen and friends. There is another Absolem in this Tatom line that I am aware of ... a nephew who was the son of his brother Abner. This later Absolem married Elizabeth W. Gresham in 1809 in Lincoln Co., GA and passed away about 1819. I don't know if any children resulted from this marriage. Good luck! Please feel free to contact me.

Still haven't received the DAR data from Washington, D.C. However, independently I did find this:

John Fullilove born ca 1753 Wales
Died: Oglethorpe County, Ga
Married: 1802 to Henrietta Tatum

Child: Susannah Fullilove, b. 26 July 1773 HN.C. died Autanga Co. AL 06 July 1856. Married: 26 Nov 1788 to Benj. Taylor

Further: From records of Southampton and Isle of Wright Counties: Thomas

Fullilove. He came from England to King William County, Va aboutg `1702 (Note: That is the same time era and location where the Huguenots settled in 1700) Most of the records from that county were destroyed during the War Between the States. Two of his grandsons were still living in that county in 1762, where his grandsons, Anthony and William were located. The Tatums and Fullliloves intermarried in King William and Lunenburg Counties, Va. and Orange County, N.C. and Madison County, Ky

The above and a whole lot more from SMTP:btatom@kiva.net. (William J. Tatum)

My husband's ancestor was Thomas Fullilove Bennett, son of Richard Bennett of Granville Co., NC. Richard married Anne Fullilove. I'm beginning to believe that they were married in Granville, rather than King William Co., Va.Whenever I see the name of Fullilove in print, I make a copy of it immediately. Our Thomas F. Bennett was born abt. 1750 and died in 1807. I don't need any additional information on him. It's Anne's parentage that's driving me over the edge. Message: This letter is requesting assistance in the completion of the FULLILOVE family history.

Would you be able to assist in filling in the "initials" on the below names, please. Any information will be followed up on.

The State of Georgia and Autauga County, Alabama are mentioned in some family records, as sparse as they are. The Kentucky "groups" of the Fullilove family seem to have a lot of information to share, yet it's the Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana lines that are of interest to us.

The below information has been taken off headstones in Louisiana.

...according to the data you sent, some believe that Fullilove came from Huguenot origin in France to England to the Colonies, right? In the LDS net I found a Frauncisci Fullaloue and Mariae, and Johannes Fullaloue. These people were born in 1600's in England, but sound French to me. Could these have been the "originators" of our Fullilove?

Ed Bates

Composit of accounts of Ruth (Fullilove) Morris (607 Dolley Madison Road, Greensboro, NC); and William and Ann Fitzgerald:

The Bates and Fullilove Families came from England in the 1600's on the ship the Snow Maiden. The Snow Maiden sailed up the James River, and docked in a small river between Norfolk, Virginia and the North Carolina Coast. There was a minister on board.

Margaret Hartman:
"It is in the records of Southampton and Isle of Wright Counties that we first spy a Thomas Fullilove."

....A Thomas Fullilove came form England to King William County, VA, about 1702. Most of the records of the family (and mine) are lost because the King William Courthouse was destroyed during the Civil War. Two of his sons or grandsons, Anthony and William, were still living in King William County in 1760, when Anthony Jr. was born there. The family moved to Lunenburg County by 1762, where they were neighbors of Benjamin Tatum and probably knew each other in King Willima County before they moved. The Tatums and Fullilove intermarried in King William and Lunenburg Counties of VA, in Orange Co., NC, and in Madison Co., KY....

....Have I been of any help or have I just muddied the waters more? Let me know what you deduce from your information in conjucntion with mine. You might check out my webpage: www.rootsquest.com/~tatomwj/tatom.htm It has more information about the Tatums. I still have more names to add. It's a never ending task....

Unknown Fullilove (From William and Ann Fitzgerald):

21 March 1889 George Slayback and Seena L. Fullilove married at Richwood Mann in the County of Boone in the presence of Edward Fullilove and Eddie Slayback by Rev. J. W. Graybill, Minister of the Gospel.

At Walton Cemetery is Geo M. Fullilove 1861-1921, Bertha M. Fullilove 1865-1939, Ed Fullilove 1865-1932, Nettie Fullilove 1869-1944, Benjamin Fullilove 1841-1904, Leah Fullilove 1847-1906. Nora m. Subject: John Fullilove, b. 1740's, Lunenburg, VA

Posted by: Bill Tatom

Message: I need help in figuring out the Fullilove family and it's associations with the Tatums of Lunenburg Co., VA. Specifically, I need to know if this John Fullilove, born in the 1740's in Lunenburg, VA, was a brother of Anthony SR? Also, who was the father of John Fullilove? I have heard his name was John and also Anthony. Susannah Tatum married this unknown Fullilove late in her life as her second husband. In her will, she mentions a stepson John Fullilove and a stepdaughter, Elizabeth Blackwell.
The stepson, John Fullilove married Henrietta Tatum, daughter of Susannah's brother John Tatum.
Another brother of Susannah, Benjamin Tatum, had a daughter, Orena, who married William Orsemus Fullilove, son of Anthony Fullilove and Elizabeth Murphy Lawrence.
Orena had a brother, Reuben Tatum, whose son Crafton married Orena's daughter Susannah Fullilove.
Crafton and Susannah had a daughter, Rebecca, who married William Fullilove.
This makes five marriages between these two families spread over four generations and I suspect there were more.

Subject: Fullilove Confusion

Posted by: Dulcene P.

Message: Bill,
The Fullilove's & Tatum's had tangled lines didn't they?
? Yes, your John is a brother to Anthony Sr.
Their father: Thomas Fullilove.
In a nutshell: (2nd)
Thomas Fullilove m. Susannah Tatum children: Anthony Sr., William, John (Your John)
John Fullilove & Henrietta Tatum's children: Jemima, Thomas, Ludwell, Nancy, Temperence, Nathaniel, Susannah, (& Susan?)
Anthony Fullilove Sr. m. Elizabeth Murphy Lawrence. Children: William O., Anthony Jr., Nancy, Larkin, Sally.
Does this help? Those numerous intermarriages confuse me, I can't keep track of who married who's child or cousin!
Do you have a copy of the Fullilove Geneaology which has passed through here? If not I can scan this and send it to you.
Dulcene

Message: I'm trying to tie the people you are discussing to Thomas & Anne Fullilove who arrived in Virginia in 1702, any info on that. Especially for where in England they came. Also I'd appreciate an e-mail copy of the genealogy you have (the 34 pages) and would probably have some supplemental to add thereafter.

Subject: Fullilove & Tatum

Posted by: Roger Fullilove

Message: The Fullilloves were in Leicestershire also. I have records from 1500s onwards in Earl Shiton (that's a town name). I have record of Thomas & Anne Fullilove arriving in Virginia in 1702, but no detail about from whence they came. I also had known that the Tatums & Fullilloves were very intertwinned, but the news that they were also a Leicestershire family is a hopeful link which perhaps suggests that these families came to the USA together. The Fullilloves are still in Earl Shilton by the way.

Subject: Fulliloves & Tatums

Posted by: Bill Tatom

Message: I don't think the two families came to VA together. The first VA record of this Tatum family is of Abel Tatum being listed as a witness in a court case in York Co., VA in 1667. I do think that maybe there was some connection between the two families in England which was rekindled in VA. The Tatum records I have from England are baptismal records from All Saints Church in Leicester, Leicestershire, England, covering three generations from 1582 to Abel Tatum's baptism in 1642.

I have traced my Davis ancestry back to Chesley Davis b. abt 1728 MD d. 1787 Newberry County, SC. Would like any info that may take it back further. Do you think there may be a connection to your line that came to the Pee Dee River area? I am looking for info to confirm that Chesley Davis' father may have been Absolom Davis and that his grandfather may have been Richard Davis of Wales. I have seen info that leads me to believe this but not for certain. Any help appreciated.

This may not be who you are looking for but they may be kin because of the name. Maybe it will give you a place to start to find your Absolum.

Thanks for the info on Richard b. 1761. I believe him to be the grandfather of "my" Richard Davis who m. Isobel Grant, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Tait Grant. I do not have a DOB on Richard but, according to the book STEVENS-DAVIS AND ALLIED FAMILIES, he m. 9 January 1777 in Granville NC. His will was probated in July 1817 in Wilkes Co, GA. Son Thomas who lived in Morgan Co, GA had the proceedings moved to that county . I have more if this is your Richard. E-mail me if you wish.

Parmelia Kight

Posted by Patricia Warren <pwarren@lunarproductions.com> on Tue, 02 Jan 2001, in response to Parmelia Kight, posted by Suzie Benforado on Thu, 28 Dec 2000

Surname: Kight, Stafford, Hardy

Parmelia Kight may have been Shadrach Kight's mother. I don't have the list of their children with me but, I do know that William was one of her sons because he's my direct ancestor. In a message to me from someone else about a Heard County cemetary, it's stated that Parmelia and Shadrach are buried beside or near(not sure) each other, so they were obviously related. My Parmelia was a Stafford who married Samuel Kight. Every generation has renamed children and there are several Shadrachs, Benjamins, etc., but it sounds like from the date that your Shadrach could have been a child of Samuel and Parmelia's.

Surname: KIGHT

I just found that I am related to Parmelia. I found her among my relatives in both 1840 Heard Co and 1850 census in Jefferson Co GA. But I don't see the direct link. Do you know the names of her children? Or do you know the relationship between her and Shadrick Kight born in SC abt 1784?

thanks!

Surname: Kight

Shadrach was their son and was never married. He had a fever when he was young and was mentally slow. Parmelia and Samuel are my GG grandparents. My g grandfather was their son James Andrew. I have a list of their children if you are interested. Most of them lived and died in the Heard County area.

Kight/Hardy/Salem UMC

Posted by lynn dean <jljjdean@neosoft.com> on Tue, 25 Jul 2000, in response to Older men in CW, posted by Jane Benson on Wed, 15 Mar 2000

Surname: Kight, Hardy, Adams

I believe that the Kight/Hardy ancestors at Salem UMC, cemetary, Heard county, are part of my husband's family. Cornelius Hardy I believe is his gggrandfather on his father's side. Hames Hardy and Sallie Kight would be his ggggrandparents. Sallie Kight is the daughter of Parmelia (spelling?) Stafford Kight. I don't know if this helps to make or complete any connections or not. Let me know if it does. They are buried

James Andrew Kight was my grandfather and is buried in Heard County Georgia. I believe Shadrack is buried in the same cemetary as well. My father was Thomas Holland Kight and was a cousin to a Mr. Wood who ran a shoe shop in Heflin ALabama.

In my research, there were three Samuel Kights. The first lived in Pitt County N.C. and was a revolutionary war veteran. One of his sons Samuel married Permelia Stafford and bought land from the Creek Indians and settled in Heard County, Georgia, near the Alabama Line. They are buried at Salem Methodist Church and if memory serves me right, I have the records somewhere. they were born around 1728. I will chech because I have birth and death dates on at least two of the Samuel Kights. I also have a copy of a will from a Kight in Virginia who is believed to be one of the first Kights in the U.S.

A HISTORY OF ITS PEOPLE

LYNDA S. ELLER

GENEALOGICAL ROVING PRESS--HUGULEY, ALABAMA

Kendrick and Theodate Day. Thomas Kendrick was born in 1761 in Frederick Co., Maryland and died prior to 1821 in Columbia Co., Ga. On March 25, 1791 he married Theodate Day who was born Aug. 19, 1774 in St. Paul Parish, Ga. and died prior to 1821 in Columbia Co., Ga.

Jonathan Kendrick lived in Putnam Co. and Henry Co. before coming to Heard Co. He married Sarah Peach in Putnam Co. Feb. 1826. Among their children were William S., James and his twin John Franklin, Rebecca, Jonathan H., Theodate and Susannah. Before 1860 Jonathan Kendrick and his family moved to Arkansas.

John Franklin Kendrick (son of Jonathan and Sarah Kendrick) married a widow, Mrs. Hasky Amanda (Wood) Hanson in Heard Co. on Apr. 10, 1859 and they moved to Arkansas. Their first child Thomas Johnson Kendrick was born Sept. 25, 1860 and died in Columbia Co., Ark. Oct. 25, 1861. Their second child, Sarah Franklin Kendrick was born on Dec. 6, 1862 several months after the death of her father. He had enlisted in the Confederate Army Feb. 26, 1862, served in O.S. Kendrick Co. 19 Regt. Ark. Infantry, and died in a Jackson, Miss. Army Camp on June 14, 1862.

After the death of her husband, Hasky Amanda Kendrick married a widower William H. Lancaster, who was a native of Heard Co. They lived in Ark., La., and Texas. After the death of her third husband, Hasky Lancaster returned to Heard Co. Her daughter, Sarah Franklin Kendrick married Alonzo Crawford Ware in Heard Co. on Dec. 22, 1880.

KITE/KIGHT/KNIGHT--There were several families of these names in Heard Co. from 1840 until the present day, but because the names were in the early years mixed up with each other we have a puzzle sorting them all out.

John Kite married Nancy Hardy. John was born 1812 and died 1861, Nancy Hardy Kite was born 1811 and died 1869. They had the following children: Martha J., John, Sarah A.E., Samuel C., Mary, Rufus, James and Jeremiah.

Samuel Kite and his wife Sarah had the following children: Amanda, Samuel, John, Mary, Martha, Harriett, James, Louisa, Nicholas, Ephraim, Alsy (female), Henry, Ella T. All the children were born prior to 1860.

Permelia Stafford Kite (1790/1865) was the wife of Samuel Kite who was an 1812 War veteran. In 1850 two of her children were still living at home with her: Shadrack (1825/1859) and Catherine born about 1826. Another of her sons James Kite married Sophronia Cosby (1821/1894) and had the following children: James, Martha, Josephus, Emily and Susan. In 1860 Mariah Cosby, sister of Sophronia Cosby Kight moved in with her widowed sister and the children.

Nathaniel D. Knight married Martha Ann. R. _____ and they had the following children: Mary E., Martha, John D.M., Nathaniel U., Lonie, William T., Leila, and Sallie. It is believed that Martha Ann might have been a St. Johns because in 1880 Elizabeth St. Johns, listed as a sister-in-law is living with them.

William Kite and Sarah Hardy had the following children: John, Susan, Isaac, Lewis C., Nancy C., Christopher, Adeline, Seletha, Sarah A., William C., Benjamin, Joseph, James, Permelia, and Aquilla.

Caswell B. Knight married Catherine Lipford (25 Mar. 1837/23 Aug. 1901) and they had the following known children: Josephine, George R., Sarah M. (23 Oct. 1868/1 Aug. 1885), Emma (4 May 1871/3 Dec. 1890), and Anna.

Henry J. Kite and Elizabeth his wife first appear in the 1850 census of Heard Co. and living with them is Susan Crosby who is 80 years old in this census. She is listed as being born in Virginia. Henry is listed as 33 years old and his wife Elizabeth is 35 years old. We do not know the connection between the Kites and Susan Crosby but the two names have intermarried in several cases.

My grandmother was Dorothy Kight Murray. She wrote a book about the Kights and the town they founded called Kite that is located in Johnson County, Georgia. The book is out of print now. Shadrack Kight, Jr. was married to Millie Norris Kight (my mother and daddy were distant cousins through this line). He was born 5-20-1818 and died 4-7-1841. Their son William Norris Kight was a senator and started the town of Kite. Shadrack Jr. was the son of Shadrach Sr. and Martha Pamela Jewell. I hope this is some help to someone. There's also an interesting, I think, tale of the origin of the name back a few pages that my grandmother told me if anyone's interested. Good Luck geneology nuts!

Kight/Kite--Johnson & Emanuel Co. GA

of 440 Go

Interested in contacting researchers of Shadrack Kight/Kite who settled in Emanuel County (later Johnson Co.) GA in early 1800s.
Wife was Patsy (Martha) Jewell. My cousins and I are aware of the other Kight family from Central West Georgia, but we can find no connection. Shadrack and his kin were said to have migrated through the Carolinas at the turn of the 18th and 19th centuries. Allied families include Norris and Riner. Thanks!!!

Wow! I'm a descendent of Major & Huldah Kite. I'd heard a story that we had an ancestor named George Washington and a seperate story about an ancestor working in a cotton mill but the version I'd heard (passed down several generations) was that they owned the cotton mill. I'm actually a descendent of their other children, Harriett Kite b. 11-3-1818 d. 3-20-1878 Md. on 10-1-1833 to George Caswell Kite b. 8-4-1811 d. 3-14-1897. Harriett & George had child David Kite b. 3-2-1846 m. Martha Angelina Rhymes on 1-18-1872, they had a daughter named Lena Kite who is my Great-GreatGrandmother.

Roy,
The notes I have show Josiah married Mahally Ann Bradley. Is this incorrect? or did he perhaps marry sisters after one died? Also, do you have any other information? I'm descended from Josiah's sister Harriet who married Caswell Kite in 1833.
Thanks

I'm a descendant of Caswell & Harriet - an uncle of mine, having done most of the research I have on the line, indicates that there are two distinct lineages. The German Kites include the golfer, Tom. Also, I'm always being asked if I'm any kin to Hawn or Smith Kite, twin brothers who were preachers for the Church of Christ in the early 1900s (not sure of date.)

Have you found this to be the case?

I haven't seen anything in the records I have that tie in to any of the VA Kites. My Harriet is 1818(GA)-1878(TX).

The Caswell line stops with him (born 1811) for now.
Harriet was a Kite whose parents were
David (1789NC-1857AL) & Holley (c1800-c1857+) (Halland?) -
David's parents were Henry (1760NC-1831GA) & Sara (1770NC-1841GA) (?).

I had an uncle (by marriage) who play pro-football for a couple of years; Darrell Meisenheimer, but I don't even know what team. Too bad we can't all inherit those abilities from these illustrious kin, eh?

Sorry I wasn't helpful in your search. Keep looking.

Dear Melanie,

Enclosed are Annual Returns, Numbers 1-5, representing the period July 4th, 1831 to January 1st. 1835. Number 4 and 5 reveal the heirs of Henry Kite. They are:

William Fuqua (apparently married to daughter of Henry Kite Hamilton Trammell (apparently married to daughter of Henry Kite
Noah Kite
Hiram Franklin (apparently married to daughter of Henry Kite
Sarah Kite (apparently the widow of Henry Kite)
Samuel Kite
Wells Thompson (apparently married to daughter of Henry Kite
David Kite

They were all paid an equal share of the estate that was $126.00. Note the $106.00 to Noah Kite was $20.00 dollars less since he owed the estate $20.00. See return No. 3, voucher 5. He is Shown as Noah Kite, Junior, but this obviously does not mean his father was a Noah Kite, It simply meant during this time that there was an older Noah Kite in the neighborhood.

I have searched CD-ROM marriage database for William Fuqua, Hamilton Trammell, Hiram Franklin and Wells Thompson. I did not find marriage records for any of them. This could mean the marriages took place in SC (which did not require marriage records until 1911) or that the official, who married them, in whatever state, simply did not make appropriate returns to the courthouse.

Sincerely

George Stephens

Wow! I'm a descendent of Major & Huldah Kite. I'd heard a story that we had an ancestor named George Washington and a seperate story about an ancestor working in a cotton mill but the version I'd heard (passed down several generations) was that they owned the cotton mill. I'm actually a descendent of their other children, Harriett Kite b. 11-3-1818 d. 3-20-1878 Md. on 10-1-1833 to George Caswell Kite b. 8-4-1811 d. 3-14-1897. Harriett & George had child David Kite b. 3-2-1846 m. Martha Angelina Rhymes on 1-18-1872, they had a daughter named Lena Kite who is my Great-GreatGrandmother.

I'm sorry George, the information I gave you was partially wrong. I'm a descendent of Maj. Kite & Hulda's sister Harriett not their daughter.

I believe that the Hollie Kite who lived with Richard and Sarah Gibbs is the daughter of Major and Huldah Kite, not the daughter of Caswell and Harriett. In the 1870 census, the Hollie living with the Gibbs family is listed as 16 years old, whereas Caswell's daughter was born before 1850. The Hollie Ann Kite who lived with the Gibbs family married Joel P. Day and they are buried in the Macedonia Baptist Church Cemetery in Cleburne County, Alabama. Her tombstone gives date of birth as June 25, 1854, died June 14, 1926.

I have recently learned that a Hollie Kite married Francis Marion Fleming in Texas on December 24, 1868. They appear in the 1870 census for Burleson County, Texas, same as Caswell and family. According to the Fleming family Bible, this Hollie Kite was born July 17, 1848, the same date usually given by descendants of Caswell and Harriett. Hollie Kite Fleming died April 14, 1880. This information comes from the Fleming family Bible in the possession of Tommye Kelly. According to Mrs. Kelly, the children of Hollie Kite Fleming inherited an interest in land in Erath County, Texas which is where Caswell and Harriett went after leaving Burleson County.

Subject: David & Samuel KITE of Erath Co., TX

I primarily am researching the GEE family and related lines. I am not a KITE descendant but have compiled a little data here as there while researching the GEEs. Here is the sum total of what little KITE info I have:

The KITE family apparently settled in Burleson Co., TX, before moving to Erath County. I think you will find in the Burleson County marriage records that David Kite md. Martha Angeline RHYMES, 18 Jan 1872. Also, Samuel KITE (I assume a brother to David) md. S.A. BURNS, 16 Feb 1870. David KITE indeed may have md. a "Dorothy," but I have no record of it.

The 1880 US census of Erath County (p. 67) shows David and Samuel living side by side:

KITE, David - b. 1846 - AL, GA, GA
- Martha A. (nee RHYMES) - b. 1850 - MS, MS, MS
- Lilly V. - b. 1874 - TX, AL, MS
- John W. - b. 1875 - " " "
- Lena E. - b. 1877 - " " "
- Mary E. - b. 1879 - " " "

KITE, Samuel - b. 1844 - GA, NC, NC
- Sally Ann (nee BURNS) - b. 1841 - GA, GA, SC
- Mary A. (Alice) - b. 1870 - TX, GA, GA
- Martha E. - b. 1872 - " " "
- Polly Ann - b. 1874 - " " "
- James F. - b. 1877 - " " "
- Anna M. - b. 1878 - " " "

Samuel KITE was living in the household of George O. (Oscar) GEE, his son-in-law, at the 1910 US census of Erath County. Oscar GEE, son of William Thomas GEE and Mary E. COLLIER, md. Mary Alice KITE, 28 Oct 1886 in Erath County. Published records of Erath's Barbee Cemetery show that Callie (sic) A. KITE, wife of Samuel KITE, was b. 13 Jun 1841; d. 21? Jan 1895. (BTW, Barbee Cemetery is also where John Wesley KITE and Minnie Ulman HANCOCK are buried. There may be other KITE burials there, but I did not make a note of them.)

I also found where a J.D. KITE md. M.S. GRANT, 23 Jul 1876 in Erath County. J.D. must be related to this KITE line, as he and Samuel each sold land in Erath County (near the Comanche county line) to William Thomas GEE in 1886 and 1887, respectively.

I also have a cryptic note in my file (copied from Erath deed records) indicating that Samuel KITE was named guardian of Martha E., Hallie A., J.F., Anna M., William B. and John S. KITE (all of Lavaca Co., TX?). These were his own children, so he undoubtedly claimed guardianship in order to sell land purchased while his wife was still living. Unfortunately, I did not make a note of the to sell land purchased while his wife was still living. Unfortunately, I did not make a note of the date or deed book/page numbers. Perhaps, someone else will be able to fill in the blanks.

As I said, this is the only KITE data I have. However, I will be happy to provide additional details if I can.
